

PICTURE OF SALES OFFICER

Picture Adjudged As Neither Moral Educational Or Amusing; But A Libel On The Colored Race And Menace To Orderly Government

NEW YORK, June 16.—The "Birth of a Nation" film is barred from the State of Ohio by a decision just rendered by the Ohio Supreme Court, sustaining the action of the State Board of Education in its conclusion that the film is not moral, educational or amusing.

Mayor Davis of Cleveland had ordered the film shown at the opera house, where it was to be shown. The Griffith interests appealed to the Federal court for the right to show the film, which was granted, but the State Supreme Court now bars it. This was a second attempt to show the film, which was barred in Ohio, which failed that time.

The effect of the decision by the State Supreme Court, which is said to be well informed persons, means that the film is barred in the entire state. In commenting on the picture, Mayor Davis said: "It is dangerous and a libel on the colored race. It is designed to stir up and foster racial hatred. I would not like to see it shown. If I see it, I will see it to be shown. It is a menace to our city government."

It is remembered that the "Birth of a Nation" picture is based upon the work of the Ku Klux Klan.

WHITMAN SISTERS AND THEIR GANG TO REMAIN AT BOOKER WASHINGTON
Wonderful Combination of Singers and Dancers Making Big Hit. Show Filled With Features.

The Whitman Sisters and "Their Gang" with the best show they have ever presented are going over the top at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. The Whitmans are always counted on for a lively, artistic entertainment, but this time they have crowded novelties and features into a program of more performance. A six-piece jazz band under the leadership of Prof. Sapp, helps to make the production as smoothly in rhythm and harmony. There is a bunch of good looking girls who sing and dance gracefully.

Many unusual features are introduced. Alberts and Alice Whitman, with "Bert," as a male impersonator, "Who Calls You Sweet Mamama Now," and to a specially dance that goes over like a hot iron. The chorus and also puts over a solo track that wins her great applause. Albert has an arrival over the number "Wait Till You See My Gal," with the young ladies in brilliant attire and powerful dancing. Another Whitman impersonator, in a dramatic pose a drunkard and has two songs numbers that score big. Little Albert is doubled with little Adams, another hit, with fun and dancing that go over, screaming. Another juvenile pair, Ernestine and James Rodgers, are wonderful with funny, quick and two dancing. In John and Sam comedian Sam Jenkins has a comedy sketch, "The Shakes." The "Shakes" is also seen with Princess Wee singing and dancing "Tell Me, What Is Your Name." The princess, a tiny edition of womanhood, is also in other features. Mattie Burdette, a two-blues number, assisted by little Albert. Ernestine makes a big hit with his character blues. The numbers are winners, especially the one with the "Charleston" dances it's a great show all the way.

New Show Next Week
The Whitman Sisters and "Their Gang" will be back over for another week, by unanimous request. They will offer an entirely new show with songs, dances, comedy and features that have never been presented on this stage. Their second week is said to be their best.

Pay Day Starts Monday
Beginning Monday, "Pay Day" will be resumed. Every person who enters the theatre on Mondays will be given a pay envelope containing a valuable coupon, single stamps, money.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

THE STAR

The most notorious underworld cafe in Vienna—the Simplicissimus—frequented by colorful apache bands and a few curious, courageous tourists—is the unusual locale of "The Crimson Runner," starring Priscilla Dean which will show at the Star Theatre this Saturday. It is a thrilling tale of a daring female detective in hood who runs out of the chase and confusion that enveloped post-war Vienna, terrifying the mistletoe and terminating the police, until a handsome young count won her heart and hand.

"Beauty and the Bad Man," the film featuring Mabel Ballin and Ford, will show at the Star Theatre this Sunday. It is the tale of a young, talented girl who got her big chance to make good on her singing voice through the philanthropy of a California miner who was considered a bad man by the community.

"Is Love Everything?" will be the Monday feature, "Tainted Money" and "Yesterday's Wife" will be the Tuesday feature. "The Legend of Hollywood" will be the Wednesday headline.

"The Price of Pleasure" Universal-Island co-starring Virginia Vail and Norman Kerry, will be the feature on Thursday and Friday. The story is of a ship girl who escapes one week of the pleasure. She then becomes the wife of the son of an aristocratic family, and then is shown on her own resource.

THE JESTAMERE
Dorothy Devore and Matt Moore in "The Narrow Street" will be the Saturday feature special this Saturday.

Dorothy Mackall, John Bowers, Harold Rosson, "Narcis" (Gladys Brockwell) from Tell, Paul Niverson, Lora Somers, Louise Mackintosh are some of the stars of the screen who are in the lead of "Clickety," the attraction for Sunday. Monday and Tuesday. It is the story of a poor type who long for a millionaire husband and the journey she makes to find him.

"The GOMET" will be the Comet Theatre special this Saturday. It is a story of two immigrants who arrive in America from Spain and who must compete to become the barkeeper of the immortal four-armed through the popularity of a Broadway dancer. Aside from the

 I have been suffering from a severe case of back pain for many years. I have tried every remedy I could find, but nothing has helped. I have even had surgery, but the pain has only gotten worse. I have heard of Dr. Andrew Zipf, and I decided to try him. I have now been treated by Dr. Zipf for several months, and I can tell you, the pain is gone. I am now able to walk, run, and jump without any discomfort. I am truly grateful to Dr. Zipf for what he has done for me. I have made him since 1875.
